

I think that every state should have the "no-call" option. My entire family has signed up for the list and we GREATLY appreciate it. It has really cut down on the annoying calls that usually come in around dinner time. I always hated telemarketers...not once did I ever buy anything from them, if I want their product or service, I will contact them.